

MNUMF “Spingtime” 2015

It’s springtime again! With the blossoming of spring, it’s time for those typical projects – gardens and flower containers, windows, spring apparel, and so on. This time of brighter, warmer days, and with tax time passed, also may be a good time to review and update your financial plans. Keeping your plans updated is important for all – from younger members to retirees.

A few questions to begin: Is your will current? Do you have financial and health-care powers of attorney? Are your heirs and charitable causes clearly listed? Are your intentions for your church and/or Minnesota United Methodist Foundation clearly noted? Do you need to revise, or write new, plans to reflect the most tax-wise approach?

As you review your plans, please consider sharing your legacy with future generations.
